Inside the 16 West Marketplace
16 Church Ave SW, Roanoke, VA 24011

David Rovics concert Monday, October 27th

"SONGS OF SOCIAL SIGNIFICANCE" - David Rovics plays for

People, Peace, and Planet

WHAT: Free concert with singer-songwriter David Rovics, sponsored by Plowshare Peace Center and P.A.N.O.R. (Progressive Action Network Of Roanoke)

Come see prodigious activist singer-songwriter David Rovics, on a rare stop in the Roanoke area! Get ready to learn about world events and peoples' lives from a different perspective, as his tight, edgy lyrics dance with his acoustic guitar.

WHEN: Monday, October 27th, 2014, at 7:00pm.

WHERE: Inside the 16 West Marketplace, at 16 Church Ave SW in downtown Roanoke.

COST: Free (thanks to our sponsors!), though donations are welcomed.

If you care about the fate of our planet and all who share it, seize this rare opportunity to see one of the great musical storytellers of our time. Come hear why his music has been featured on Democracy Now!, BBC, and Al-Jazeera. Come see why Amy Goodman has called him the "musical version of Democracy Now!" Get ready to laugh, cry, and most importantly, learn! Step out of your comfort zone, get curious, and if you want, get involved! Sing along, and meet local activist groups with good causes. Connect with others, and just maybe, connect with what you've been missing. Bring yourself, and bring friends!
