

www.

Compact Cinema

.org

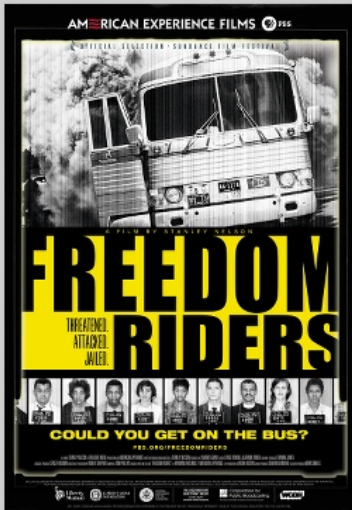

Serving food for thought

(540) 632-2109

Inside the 16 West Marketplace
16 Church Ave SW, Roanoke, VA 24011

Weekly Schedule for 1/26/15-2/1/15

Freedom Riders

Cost: FREE!
Tues 1/27: 7:00pm

The story behind hundreds of civil rights activists in the 1960's who challenged the racial segregation of the interstate transportation system in the American South.

Weekly TED Talk

Cost: FREE!
Every Wednesday: 12:00pm

Britta Riley wanted to grow her own food (in her tiny apartment). So she and her friends developed a system for growing plants in discarded plastic bottles — researching, testing and tweaking the system using social media, trying many variations at once and quickly arriving at the optimal system. Call it distributed DIY. And the results? Delicious.

Time As Money

Cost: $8.00
Wed 1/28: 7:00pm

A detailed portrait of communities using time banking to meet the needs of everyday life, this movie was made using time banking and barter rather than money.

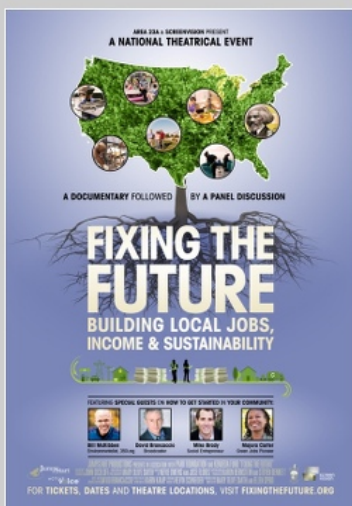

Inequality For All

Cost: $8.00
Thurs 1/29: 7:00pm

Former Clinton Labor Secretary Robert Reich demonstrates how the widening income gap has a devastating impact on the American economy.

Fixing The Future

Cost: $8.00
Fri 1/30: 7:00pm

See how cities across America are rebuilding their local economies, using time banks, co-ops, local business alliances, community banking.

Shift Change

Cost: $8.00
Sat 1/31: 7:00pm

An in-depth look at worker-owned cooperatives in the U.S. and abroad, and the advantages they have over other businesses both for workers and the bottom line.

www.compactcinema.org